NCHEPM FEATURED IN *FEDMANAGER

WASHINGTON – The National Council of Hispanic Employment Program Managers (NCHEPM), the nation’s premiere authority on efforts to improve and accelerate Hispanic participation and representation in the Federal government, announced the release of the FEDMANAGER article written by NCHEPM Chair Glorimar Maldonado.

The prompt for the quarterly article in the Fedforum section of FEDMANAGER is “Accountability and Transparency: What Does It Mean to Your Organization?” In the editorial, Maldonado provides more than 125,000 subscribers across the federal government with a clear understanding of the importance and impacts of accountability and transparency for employees and organizations. She also outlines the ways in which the Executive Board of the National Council of Hispanic Employment Program Managers (NCHEPM) demonstrates these two integral components of successful leadership, and how that consistent demonstration helps to develop trust, foster psychological safety and collaboration, and inspires excellence in and among NCHEPM members and allies.

For more than 25 years, the NCHEPM has worked to share vital information and resources to assist Hispanic Employment Program Managers and other DEIA practitioners in building coalitions and networks to enhance the recruitment, development and retention of Hispanics in the federal workforce. The NCHEPM’s programs inform the work of these practitioners and thereby improve the success and sustainability of the work they undertake.

The article, “Accountability and Transparency: What Does It Mean to Your Organization?” was published on the FEDMANAGER web site Tuesday, Oct. 24, 2023. Additional themed articles from the NCHEPM will be forthcoming each quarter throughout 2023.
